Scene 1: Education Inequality

Setting: Classroom

(Students are seated. Mr. Jon enters and writes on the chalkboard.)

Narrator: Stev has been thinking about a big problem—education inequality. Today, he decides to talk about it.

Mr. Jon: Good morning, class! Let's start with algebra today.

Stev: (Raises hand) Mr. Jon, can I talk about something important?

Mr. Jon: Sure, Stev. What is it?

Stev: Many students in poor areas don't have enough books, computers, or teachers. It's unfair, and it makes them fall behind.

Herry: Stev is right. We should do something about it.

Alex: (Confused) Are schools really like that?

Stev: Yes, Alex. It happens in many places. We have so much here, but they don't.

Mr. Jon: Hmm, I didn't know it was so bad. Let's take a few minutes to talk about this.

Scene 2: The Plan

Setting: School Library

(Stev and Herry are sitting with books and a computer.)

Narrator: Stev and Herry are now researching. They want to gather facts to show how bad the problem is.

Stev: Look at this, Herry. Schools without good resources have students with low scores.

Herry: We should show this to Mr. Jon and the principal. If we explain it well, they might help us.

(They walk to the principal, Mr. Thompson.)

Herry: Sir, we found some information about education problems. Can we show it to you?

Mr. Jon: (Smiling) This is very good work. Let's have a meeting about it.

Scene 3: Taking Action

Setting: School Auditorium

(Donation boxes are placed. Posters say, "Support Education for All!")

Narrator: After the meeting, everyone decided to take action. Stev and his friends started a donation drive.

Stev: (To the crowd) Let's help students who need books, computers, or tutors. Every small help matters!

(Teachers and students bring books and computers. Some students sign up to teach.)

Herry: Look, Stev! Everyone is helping. This is amazing!

Mr. Jon: (Handing books) I'm proud of you all. You showed that we can make a difference when we work together.

Narrator: And so, with teamwork and kindness, Stev and his friends made a big change. This story shows that even small actions can make a big difference.

End of Drama.
